ANNOUNCEMENTS

BREED THEATRE.

Seasue Hayakawa, the Noted Japanese Actor, in The Honerable Friend, Five-Part Lasky Production, Feature for Today and Tuesday.

Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor, who will be seen at the Breed theatre today and Tuesday in the Jesse L. Lasky production of The Honorable Friend, written especially for him Elizabeth McGaffey and prepared for the screen by Eva Unsell, has long been considered by his fellow dramatic artists as one of the greatest actors on the screen. It was only recently, however, that he attracted the Lasky production of The Cheat. Shortiy after that, in answer to popular demand, he was starred in a Japanese itory, Allen Souls, and again repeated his success of the former production. In The Honorable Friend he has the Fole of a young Japanese in America, and it is said to be one of the most bunusual in which he has appeared. Fole of a young Japanese in America, and it is said to be one of the most unusual in which he has appeared.

Hayakawa is surrounded by a cast of unusual excellence, including such distinguished artists as Tsuri Aoki, Raymond Hatton and Billy Edmer.

The Bread will also present the third

The Breed will also present the third chapter of The Great Secret, Metro's hew million dollar serial, with Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne as tars. From whatever direction the wind of photopiay popularity has blown, it has proven beyond peradventure of a doubt that this new serial is the greatest screen novel of the century and has established a high water mark in motion picture excellence. For the first time in his remarkable enreer, Mr. Bushman acts a variety of roles. He is seen as a wealthy man about town, a trained athlete, an East Side tough, a longshoreman and a

This is similarly true of Miss Bayne. Who as Beverly Clarke gives the finest performance of her screen career. Don't fail to see this chapter, as it contains many startling situations. The Breed concert orchestra renders a musical program at all performances and every evening the orchestra is augmented to five pieces. Three shows faily, at 2.30, 7 and 8.20 p.m. All seats 10 cents, at all performances.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The schemes and plots of a woman without heart are portrayed in William Fox's newest photopiay, Jealousy, in which Valeska Suratt piays the leading Fole. It is the story of a discontented woman who tries to find happiness by forcing men to love her; but she is grushed and helpless in the end.

Another big attraction for Monday's and Tuesday's show at the Auditorium is the famous Charles Chaplin in The Musketeers of the Slums. This picture has already made thousands of laughs and being made up in two reels carries with it the usual Chaplin fun. The show for these two days is a hard one to beat and will bring forth much griticism. Remember the price is but to cents all over the house

DAVIS THEATRE.

Three Big Keith Vaudeville Acts and Clara Williams in a Five-Part Triangle Feature Photoplay, Three of Many.

The vaudeville bill booked to appear

The vaudeville bill booked to appear at the Davis the first half of this week is one that will appeal to every theatregoer in the city. The headline attraction is Condin Parks Trio, billed as three little pals. of this popular theatre. In addition to the vaudeville there is a nexceptionally fine program of photoplays, with a five-part Triangle Ince feature called Three of Many, starring Clara Wilthree of Many, starring Clara Wil-flams. This is an intensely interesting picture of nationalities and deals with the present war and how it affected three different people. The other pic-tures are Frills and Thrills, one of Florence Rose's latest fashion films, and is encelable acceptable to and is specially acceptable to the lailes; the other picture is an industrial one and is hand colored. A special

New York, Jan. 28.—Acceptance of physically unfit national guardsmen made necessary by last summer's mo-bilization cost the federal government bilization cost the federal government not less than $2,000,000, according to a report tonight of the executive committee of Mayor Mitchel's committee on national defense.

The lowest estimate of the physically unfit among the 114,000 officers and men subject to the president's call the procedure of 25 per cent.

and men subject to the president's call was placed at 25 per cent. or 28,500, in spite, the report says, of the relatively low rejection rate in Massachusetts New York and a few other states toward maintaining proper physical standards.

"At one of the mobilization camps," said the committee, "the army inspector-instructor estimated that each man rejected had represented, at a conservative estimate, a loss to the government of $40. In the case of men carried to the border without thorough examination and sent back home because of disability, the cost was of course far greater. In other cases, where men were discharged at theor home stations soon after the call, it was less."

Hartford-Strong objections to hav-Hartford—Strong objections to having Billy Sunday come to Hartford were voiced by the Rev. Sherrod Soule and Dr. Ernest A. Their remarks were occasioned by the proposal that the church unite with other churches in the city in extending an invitation to the evangelists to come here and control of the evangelists to come here and control of the evangelists to come here and conthe evangelists to come here and conduct revivals:
